Armed Robbery Suspect Arrested

Who:

16-year-old juvenile

What:

Armed Robbery

Where:

Centerfield Road

When:

Saturday, January 23, 2016

Bluffton Police Investigators have arrested a 16-year-old juvenile as the one responsible for robbing a pizza delivery man on Saturday, January 23, 2016.

The victim said he was delivering a pizza to 10 Centerfield Road but when he arrived, there was no number 10. He said he was then flagged down by two males at the intersection of Centerfield Lane and Ballfield Road. At that time one of the males, identified as the 16-year-old, wielded a black pistol and demanded the two pizzas. The victim handed the pizzas to the suspect, and the two males left the area on foot.

Bluffton Investigators interviewed the 16-year-old suspect who admitted to brandishing the gun and taking the pizzas. The suspect will be charged as an adult and will be transported to the Beaufort County Detention Center.

This investigation is ongoing in an attempt to identify the second suspect. If anyone has any information regarding this armed robbery, please contact Officer Matt Wilfong at 843-706-4550.
