Car Found Upside Down in Creek; Driver Arrested for DUI

Who:

32-year-old Jacklyn Moskol

What:

Arrested for Driving Under the Influence

Where:

2 Bruin Road

When:

Saturday, February 6, 2016

On the morning of Saturday, February 6, 2016, Bluffton officers came in contact with 32-year-old Jacklyn Moskol at 2 Bruin Road stating she had been assaulted. She said she couldn't remember anything but felt she had been attacked. Officers stated Moskol had slurred speech, glassy eyes and smelled of alcohol. During questioning, Moskol did say she woke up, in a puddle, inside her car that was upside down.

A short time later, officers found Moskol's vehicle upside down in the Creek at the end of Hickory Trace in Old Town Bluffton. Moskol said she remembered getting into her car and driving but didn't remember anything after that. Police say she drove down Lawrence Street, onto Hickory Trace and proceeded to drive off a 22-foot ravine into the Creek. The assault allegations were unfounded.

Due to the crash, she was transported to the hospital where her injuries were treated. Tests showed Moskol had a blood-alcohol-level of .25. After being treated at the hospital officers arrested Moskol for Driving under the Influence. She was transported to the Beaufort County Detention Center.
