Trisha Greathouse Named Bluffton's Director of Finance and Administration

Town Manager Marc Orlando has named Trisha Greathouse as the town's new director of finance and administration.

Greathouse, who began with the town in 2007, will supervise the finance department, the business license division and municipal court. In her role as the chief financial officer of the town, Greathouse is in charge of the town's budget, accounting, purchasing and debt management. She also facilitates support for the Accommodations Tax Advisory Committee.

Greathouse has been a certified government finance officer since 2010, a designation issued by the Government Finance Officers Association of South Carolina. She also earned a Certificate of Achievement from the South Carolina Economic Development School in 2012 and is a member of several professional organizations including the Municipal Finance Officers Clerks and Treasurers Association, the Government Finance Officers Association and the Government Finance Officers Association of South Carolina.

A Lowcountry resident for nearly 17 years, Greathouse is civically-active as a 2010 graduate of the Hilton Head Island-Bluffton Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Program and past president of the Leadership Alumni Board. Greathouse has served as the treasurer of the board of directors for Literacy Volunteers of the Lowcountry and is a past member of the Okatie Rotary Club where she earned the designation of Paul Harris Fellow.

Greathouse earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Mercyhurst University in Erie, Pa.
