Waste Management Trash/Recycling Resumes Regular Schedule Wednesday Sept. 13

The Town has been notified by Waste Management its collections will resume on its regular schedule for both recycling and trash tomorrow, September 13, for the Town of Bluffton.

Waste Management representatives plan to operate its normally scheduled routes for the remainder of the week. If you are normally scheduled for either recycling or trash pick up Wednesday, Thursday or Friday (September 13-15), those will be picked up.

Monday and Tuesday routes will be collected on normal schedule on Monday and Tuesday, September 18 and 19. Waste Management representatives said due to Monday, September 11 and Tuesday, September 12 routes not collected this week because of the evacuation, Waste Management representatives will pay close attention to extra waste outside of carts and will collect this material as well.

Waste Management residents are being asked to continue to place only allowed recyclables into the recycle bins.

If you have any questions about Waste Management services, residents can reach its Customer Service at 1-888-964-9730 (Monday – Friday, 7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.).

Town of Bluffton residents and businesses may also continue to contact the Town's Customer Service Center at 843-706-4500 for solid waste and recycling curbside pickup concerns, as well as any other concerns with which the Town may be able to help.
