Clarification: Bluffton's River Sweep Has NOT been Rescheduled for Saturday, October 21

Bluffton's annual River Sweep, which was originally scheduled for Saturday, September 16, was cancelled due to Tropical Storm Irma. This event will not be rescheduled.

The Island Packet reported Sunday the rescheduled event would be Saturday, October 21 at Bluffton's Oyster Factory Park. This is incorrect due to a media release from a statewide organization listing Bluffton as one of the state's coastal municipalities which rescheduled for Saturday.

The Island Packet will publish a correction.

The next May River Cleanup will be in April; the Town will publicize the date when it is finalized. The Town appreciates its hundreds of volunteers who participate in September's annual River Sweep and April's annual May River Cleanup.
