Bluffton Police Accepting Citizen Police Academy Applications

Who:

Citizens Police Academy Applicants

What:

10-week Citizens Police Academy Course

Where:

Bluffton Police Department, 101 Progressive Street

When:

August 15 – October 17, 2019, Thursday nights, 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The Bluffton Police Department is now accepting applications for the 2019 Citizens Police Academy (CPA).

The 10-week course will focus on the four divisions of the department, traffic enforcement, K9 program, evidence collection, fingerprint recovery, defensive tactics, firearms and more.

“This is a unique opportunity for the public to learn what it’s like to be a police officer. It gives the public a rare opportunity to see our equipment and get to know our officers on a personal basis,” said Bluffton Police Chief Chris Chapmond.

To apply, you must be 18 years or older, have a valid driver’s license, and agree to a background check. Apply by visiting the Police Station located at 101 Progressive Street to fill out the application or complete the application at the bottom of the Bluffton Police Department’s website at <https://www.townofbluffton.sc.gov/police-department/>.

Please submit applications quickly, as there are limited seats in the class.
