DATE: July 18, 2019
RELEASE NUMBER: 19-19

Bluffton Police seek information in Jim n Nick's incidents

Investigators with the Bluffton Police Department are actively seeking information regarding suspect(s), in two separate incidents, that occurred at Jim n Nick's Barbeque earlier this month.

The first incident occurred July 4, 2019 between 1 a.m. – 1:30 a.m. As an employee left for the night, the unknown suspect forced the employee back into the restaurant and robbed her at gunpoint. The suspect is seen in the video below and is described male, approximately six feet tall, wearing a black ski mask, an additional item over his face and black pants. The suspect fled the area after the robbery towards Sheridan Park. https://youtu.be/R\_GFcPV9\_kQ

The second incident occurred July 10, 2019 at approximately 2 a.m. Police were dispatched to Jim-n-Nicks Barbeque for an activated alarm. Once on scene, police found the suspect broke a window on an emergency door. The suspect is seen in the video taking a few steps inside before activating a motion alarm. When the alarm sounded, the suspect left the building. The video is grainy, but investigators believe someone may recognize the suspect who is also believed to be a male. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kHhtvB8LKcs>
