Town of Bluffton Hosts Inaugural Job Fair, August 9 at the Rotary Community Center

The Town of Bluffton is hosting its first job fair, August 9, from 9 a.m. – noon at the Rotary Community Center within Oscar Frazier Park. This fair will provide prospective applicants the opportunity to meet the Town’s department leaders and discuss opportunities with the Town of Bluffton. Applications and resumes will be accepted and tracked for one year from date of submission.

The Town of Bluffton currently employs approximately 135 employees in numerous functions including:

- Customer Service Center (i.e. permitting, licensing and general information)
- Engineering (i.e. engineers, project managers and watershed staff members)
- Growth Management (i.e. urban planners, community development, building inspectors)
- Bluffton Police Department (i.e. police officers, crossing guards, victims advocate and civilian staff)
- Finance
- Human Resources
- Municipal Court
- The Don Ryan Center for Innovation

“I am proud the Town is hosting this job fair, so we are aware of local talent who have an interest in employment with Bluffton,” Town Manager Marc Orlando said. “The Town plans to make this an annual event as this fair gives the Town’s department leaders an opportunity to answer any questions from applicants as well as to discuss how their departments serve the Bluffton community.”

Current job openings and employment applications are located on the Town’s website:
