The Bluffton Police Department was presented with the Agency of the Year award on Wednesday, March 27, 2019 at the 2018 DUI Enforcement Recognition and 2018 Law Enforcement Driving Under the Influence (DUI) Challenge Ceremonies.

This is an annual event presented by the South Carolina Department of Public Safety that recognizes law enforcement agencies across the state for DUI arrests, DUI victim services and anti-underage drinking programs.

"I'm very proud of our officers who assisted in the department receiving this award. The Bluffton Police Department made 218 DUI arrests in 2018, which were vitally important in keeping the roads and residents of Bluffton safe," said Bluffton Police Chief Chris Chapmond.
