When:

April 20, 2016 from 9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

The Bluffton Police Department and ASIS (American Society for Industrial Security) International Savannah Low Country Chapter are teaming up to provide a security workshop to the leaders of local places of worship.

The workshop will focus on how to prioritize assets for protection, how to assess threats and hazards, determine the likelihood of a threat to occur, identify vulnerabilities and select appropriate security countermeasures. The interactive seminar will be led by ASIS International Instructor Jim McGuffey.

The meeting will occur at the Bluffton Police Department Wednesday, April 20, 2016 from 9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

For those interested in attending the workshop, please email Jim McGuffey at jimmcguffey@hargray.com no later than April 15, 2016.
